To Whom It May Concern,

I am pleased to submit this letter of support for Alexa Kanchuk who was a student I advised at Nova Scotia Community College (NSCC) over the past several months. I am writing this letter in my capacity as a management consultant in addition to my role as a teacher at NSCC.

Alexa is a highly relationship oriented individual. She is very effective at establishing and developing professional relationships. She is engaging in conversation and develops rapport quickly. Alexa follows through and maintains relationships well. She is determined. She is professional. I observed these characteristics in Alexa during several interactions with her over the past several months.

Alexa is a highly motivated and dedicated learner. She listens and takes direction well. I would welcome an opportunity to work with Alexa, especially in a customer-oriented sales and service environment. I am confident that she will be successful in her career and I am happy to encourage her with this letter of support. Please feel free to contact me for more information.

Sincerely,
